Survey Instrument

Find yourself in good company

December 2013

Dear Greenville Resident:

Your input on the enclosed survey is extremely important. The City of Greenville is conducting a survey of residents to gather information about City priorities and the quality of City programs and services. The survey is an action item of the City Council, and will be integrated into the City's strategic goal planning process.

To ensure that the City's priorities are aligned with the needs of our residents, we need to know what you think.

We greatly appreciate your time and value your opinion. We realize that this survey will take some time to complete, but every question is important. The time you invest in this survey will influence dozens of decisions that will be made about the City's future. Your responses will also help the City Council gauge the success of its efforts to carry out the community's vision for Greenville and to address the many opportunities and challenges facing our community.

Please return your survey or complete it online sometime during the next week. You may return your survey in the enclosed postage-paid envelope addressed to ETC Institute, 725 W. Frontier Circle, Olathe, Kansas 66061 or go to www.greenvillecitizensurvey.org to complete the survey online. Your individual responses will remain confidential, but the overall results will be provided to the City in January, prior to the City Council's annual planning session. Look for a summary of the results on the City's website early next year.

Thank you again for taking the time to better our community. If you have any questions, please contact the City's Communications Manager, Steve Hawley, at shawley@greenvillenc.gov or 252-329-2489.

Sincerely,
